Course Description

This course is a practical and challenging reading course. It is designed for those students wishing to improve their reading skills in English. The emphasis of the course is on understanding vocabulary through context, punctuation, and key word indicators. The course builds vocabulary through the understanding of prefixes and suffixes. Students are taught how to take notes from reading that will produce better recall later. Course content is divided between speaking on a variety of subjects and providing solid reading skills for the future. This is level 2 course, students unsure of their English reading ability should consider ENG113.

Learning and Teaching Structure

The course will be implemented as a combination of lectures, discussions, in-class writing, assigned writing, as well as individual and group assignments. Attendance and full participation in the Business Study Group is required to be considered for completion of the course.

The course will be conducted using a variety of textbook exercises, in-class handouts and multimedia tools designed to challenge students and provide practical skill development through guided discovery and practice.
