TRAIN

1) Take the subway station line to Seoul Station
서울역 (direct line)

2) At Seoul Station, buy the train ticket to Daejeon Station 대전역

3) Check the departure of the trains and get on the appropriate train at least 10 minutes before departure time.

4) Get off at Daejeon Station and take a taxi to SolGeo Dormitory.

BEFORE WE START

Depending on the circumstance, public transportation time can take longer or shorter. If there are no available buses or train seats for the evening and the next bus or train is in the morning, we highly recommend you to leave in the morning for the next available bus or train. You will need to get in touch with your assigned SolAssistant to update them about the situation and we suggest you to stay in the airport overnight. Prices, ticket booth placement and schedule are also the subject that might be changed.

CURRENCY EXCHANGE

1

Your debit / credit cards do not always successfully work in Korea (even if it is an international card).

2

In order to smoothly arrive in Daejeon, we recommend for you to have cash on you readily available.

3

If you did not bring cash (Korean WON), you can exchange the money at the airport. Go to the nearest information desk to ask for directions.

Tip!

There is no break time when the bus stops at the bus stop, so we recommend you to go to the toilet before your departure. Also, we recommend you take a picture of the license plate in case you get lost. (The bus can stop in urgent situations. If the bus stops, make sure it's Daejeon Complex Terminal.)

Make sure to be in front of your bus at least 5 minutes before departure. Before getting on the bus, double check the departure time just in case. The bus ride will be approximately 3 hours long (depending on traffic).

Watch your belongings and set up your alarm 10 minutes before the arrival.
